LONG-TERM CARE INSURANCE EXPERIENCE REPORTING FORMS 1 THROUGH 5

These reporting forms must be filed with the NAIC by April 1 each year.

The purpose of the Long-Term Care Insurance Experience Reporting Forms is to monitor the amount of such coverage and to provide data specific to this coverage on a nationwide basis. Long-term care expenses may be paid through life policies, annuity contracts and health contracts. When the long-term benefits portion of the contract is subject to rating rules based on the Long-Term Care Insurance Model Regulation (sections on required disclosure or rating practices to customers, loss ratio and premium rate increases), the adequacy of the pricing and reserve assumptions is critical to meeting the expectation of those sections.

For life or annuity products where no portion is subject to these rating rules, the products are not oring included in the reporting in these forms. Companies may use an assumption that long-term care benefits that are "incide 'al" regardless of the date of issue, may be excluded. Incidental means that the value of long-term care benefits provided is 'ess than ten percent (10%) of the total value of the benefits provided over the life of the policy (measured as of the dath of issue). If a policy form has had no policies in force and all claims on the policy form have been settled for more than the policy form is no longer reported on Forms 1, 2 and 4.

Form 1 focuses on the critical assumptions of morbidity and persistency while still press ting loss ratio data (without the level of detail in the original forms). As noted in the instructions specific to the form prior- ear values will be filled in over time. Only information as of 2009 and subsequent years is required on the formation at was required on the previous Long-Term Care Insurance Experience Reporting Forms. Companies are not a tuited a supply information for spaces on the forms corresponding to any year prior to adoption of the forms, unless that a forms on was previously reported. Form 2 focuses on the developing level of funds from the issue age premium batis and compares this to the active life reserve. As noted in the instructions specific to the form, prior-year values will be fixed in our time. Form 3 focuses on the adequacy of claims reserves by presenting experience based on incurred years for no next several years. Because prior-year values should already be available; this form should be completed for at least the current and past four years. If available, all prior years should be completed. Form 4 is to include life and annuity products that are not exempt as outlined in the Long-Term Care Insurance Model Regulation. Form 5, which replates the Long-Term Care Insurance Model Regulation. Form 5, which replates the Long-Term Care Insurance Model Regulation forms the structure and propose of the forms, the new forms are based on adding additional calendar years of experience to prior reset as a more appropriately compare the actual results with expectations, the expected values are based on the exposure at the beginning of that year, not the original assumed sales distribution used when completing the original forms.

Because of the relatively small claim rates and variable regith and size of long-term care claims, the statistical credibility of long-term care insurance experience is lower than the amount of credibility assigned to similar amounts of experience on other types of health insurance. This should be taken into account when reviewing experience and assessing the adequacy of reserves and the critical assumptions up crity. Thum.

The Long-Term Care Insurance E. vrier. Proporting Forms 1 through 5 should be filed whenever long-term care insurance has been sold, regardless of which are val statement has been filed. These forms are not only applicable to companies filing the life, accident and health annual statement. The list of the various annual statements is: life, accident and health, property/casualty, fraternal c. 1 health.

Include under the Individual portion both Individual policies and Group certificates if the group is approved by the state under statutes sin far to Section 4E(4) of the Long-Term Care Insurance Model Act. Include under the Group portion group certificates if the group is approved by the state under statutes similar to Section 4E(1), (2) or (3) of the model act.

Experience for LTC insurance should be reported separately by stand-alone LTC policy form or by rider where experience is to be reported by form. Reporting by rider is applicable only to riders having distinct premiums for LTC coverage that are attached to products other than stand-alone LTC policies. Experience under forms that provide substantially similar coverage and provisions, that are issued to substantially similar risk classes and that are issued under similar underwriting standards, may be combined. If this option is utilized, the forms combined should be identified in the column captioned "Policy Form."

Claims incurred will need to reflect the loss of future premiums. These will occur because of the waiver of premium provision in the contract, waiver due to spouse's benefit status or other provisions in the contract that make it paid-up or not subject to collection of additional premiums for some future period. The claim incurred in each year will include the amount of the reserve established to reflect the loss of future expected premiums. The effect in future years will depend on the manner in which premiums from these policies are reported in following periods. If the assumption is not the policy is paid-up (no future premiums to be collected), the reserve and experience fund would be the paid-up van and to are incurred claims will be only for LTC benefits. If the assumption is that future premiums (gross or net) will be considered as "paid by waiver," the reserve and experience fund will include in the reserve the present value of future aremitals to be waived and the premium waived will be reported as both earned premium and a portion of the incurred taims

For T=0

 $_{0}$ Paid Claims_{iy}× \mathbf{v}^{16} + $_{0}$ Case Reserve_{iy} × \mathbf{v}^{16} + $_{0}$ IBNR_{iy}× \mathbf{v}^{16} .

For T>0

This is the developed claim amounts for claims incurred during the specific calendar year. For each claim, the incurred claim equals the present values of all claim payments and the present value of any outstanding case reserve. This will be different from the reported financial incurred claims. The financial incurred claims, including the change in claim reserves that contains gain or loss due to reserve estimation different from actual payments for claims incurred in prior years.

For purposes of the present value calculation, assume all payments are made in the middle of the calendar year and the case reserve is at the end of the calendar year. The discount rate is the statutory valuation interest rate for case reserve. For the current calendar year, an Incurred But Not Reported (IBNR) reserve should be assigned. If a portion of the IBNR is held for years other than the current calendar year, the value in the parentheses should be used.

The total case reserves and IBNR equal the portion of the direct liability attributable to long-term care business from Exhibit 8, Part 2, Line 2.1 (life, accident & health and frate nal) p. is the portion of the claim liabilities reported on Exhibit 6, Line 14 (life, accident & health) and Line 13 (fraternal) attributable to LTC business for life, accident & health and fraternal only. This is the interpolation of successive policy year expected claim cost of all overages in force at the beginning of the year. Simple averaging is acceptable.

An acceptable approximation is the explorate the most multiplied by an exposure adjustment, where expected claim cost is the sum of whim each during the year based on the valuation morbidity assumption of each life in force acceptable beginning of the year. The valuation claim cost during the year is an interpolation of successive claim costs by policy year. Other approximations may also be acceptable. Any changes in a thod she lid be disclosed on the form.

The exposure adjustment is:

[Actual Numbs, of Lives In Force at Beginning of Year – (Expected Deaths + Expected Lapses) 2 | Actual Number of Lives In Force at Beginning of Year,

where Expected D. the and Expected Lapses are based on valuation assumptions. They can be derived from a single verage decrement rate combining deaths and lapses, or specific decrement rates applying to actual exposures. If there is no in force at the beginning of the year, the expected claim cost c., be zero.

Column 4 - Actual Expected Incurred Claims

Acres incurred claims as a percentage of valuation expected incurred claims.

Column 5 Open Claim Count

Number of claims that have at least one benefit payment made during the year after the elimination period. For the purpose of including a claim in this count, payments that do not require satisfaction of the elimination period are excluded. Examples are payments of caregiver training benefits and optional care coordination benefits. For these examples, if the amounts paid are included as benefits under the policy, they should be included in the claim amounts but excluded from the claim counts. A claim should be included in the count, even though it has terminated by the end of the year.

If active life reserves are not held for claimants, then exclude the claimants.

Column 6 - New Claim Count

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM 2

OVERVIEW

The purpose of Form 2 is to calculate a ratio of an experience reserve to the reported reserve by calendar year on a nationwide basis. Summary data by policy form is to be reported. Data for the current reporting year, as well as that reported in each of the prior two reporting years, is to be shown on Form 2.

The following formulae specify data by calendar duration (t) and calendar year of issue (n). Data at this detail is required for the calculation of the experience reserve, although only totals by policy form are illustrated. Experience data is notated by a superscript E to distinguish from valuation assumptions. The experience reserve reported in column 1 is experience. 1) the experience reserve at the end of the prior reporting year (t-1); 2) valuation net premiums (t) interest rates; and 3) experience incurred claims, earned premiums, and actual persistency. The valuation net premiume uses are the actual net premiums used for that reporting year. As an example, if a factor file method is used, the valuation is the premiums used to calculate the reserve factors would be used for Form 2.

For 2009, the experience reserve (column 13) was calculated using the reported reserve of the end of 2008 as the prior year's reserve. Similarly, for acquired business, the experience reserve as of the year-en following acquisition is set equal to the reported reserve as of that date. The experience reserve as of subsequent periods is developed from the first experience reserve reported in this form. If a policy form has had no policies in force and all classes on the policy form have been settled for more than one year, then the policy form is no longer reported on this form.

Experience and valuation data are reported by base policy form. Rider forms will be eported with the base forms to which they are attached.

Only summary data by reporting year is illustrated. The reporting contains bould have detail by calendar duration available upon request.

Part 2 – Sum of Total Amount Paid Policyholders and Claim Liability and Rese. • Out, anding at End of Year

This section provides a claim cost development overview to show the add trip of laim reserves for a particular incurral year at the end of that year and at the end of subsequent years. The entry in Lore X and Column Y is the cumulative claims incurred during year X and paid through the end of year Y for claims incurred in year X, plus the reserve at the end of year Y for claims incurred in year X.

Claims are on a direct basis including transfers before any reinsurant. Claims incurred prior to the year shown on Line 2 should be included in Line 1, Columns 1 through 8.

The "Prior" values in these sections will not be directly cor parable to prior statements, as the current year's statement will include an additional incurred year's values.

Transfer policies are defined as policies that are a their purel used or sold, typically through assumption reinsurance. These policies will be recorded in these parts of this exhibit to the company owns them.

Claim reserves for the buyer are the reserves initially set by the buyer, not necessarily equal to the reserves for the seller.

Part 4 - Present Value of Inc. red Claims (Interest Adjusted Development of Incurred Claims)

Because claim reserves for long duration claims are generally discounted, the year-to-year comparison in Part 2 is misleading to the extent interaction me a claim reserves is material. To show consistent values; paid claims; transferred reserves and claim reserves are discounted to a common point in time (assumed to be July 1 of the incurred year).

- · Paid chims in the year of incurral are discounted one-quarter year.
- Paid claims subsequent to the year of incurral are assumed to be paid mid-year and discounted back to the midpoint of the incurred year.
- Outstanding claim reserves for a given incurred year plus transferred reserves from Part 3 are discounted from the valuation date to the midpoint of the incurred year.
- Negative results are possible for acquired business only. Negative results indicate downward development of ultimate claims.

SUPPLEMENTAL HEALTH CARE EXHIBIT - PARTS 1, 2 AND 3

The purpose of this supplemental exhibit is to assist state and federal regulators in identifying and defining elements that make up the medical loss ratio as described in Section 2718(b) of the Public Health Service Act (PHSA) and for purposes of submitting a report to the HHS Secretary, as required by Section 2718(a) of the PHSA. The supplemental exhibit is also intended to track and compare financial results of health care business as reported in the annual financial statements. Thus, the numbers included in this supplemental exhibit are not the exact numbers that will be utilized for rebate purposes due to possible revisions for claim reserve run-off subsequent to year-end, statistical credibility concerns and other defined adjustments. (See Cautionary Statement at www.naic.org/cmte_e_app_blanks.htm.)

A schedule must be prepared and submitted for each jurisdiction in which the company has written direct comprehensive major medical health business, or has direct amounts paid, incurred or unpaid for provisions of high the care services. In addition, a schedule must be prepared and submitted that contains the grand total (GT) for the company. Jowever, insurers that have no business that would be included in Columns 1 through 9 or 12 of Part 1 for ANY of the start are not required to complete this supplement at all. If an insurer is required to file the supplement, then the insurer is ust complete Parts 1 and 2 for each state in which the insurer has any health business, even if a particular state will show 10 each of premiums reported in Columns 1 through 9 or 12 of Part 1. Also, Part 3 must be completed for any state in which the care non-zero amounts in Columns 1 through 9 of Part 1. Companies should contact their domiciliary regulator 1 obtain a waiver of the filing if the only reportable business in Columns 1 through 9 are comprised of closed blocks of small group, large group or individual business that, if totaled across all states, does not equal 1,000 lives in total.

Run-Off and Reinsurance Business

Similarly, insurers in run-off (major medical claims incurred with a to major medical earned premiums) or that only has assumed and no direct written major medical business in any of the states are not required to complete this supplement. However, 100% assumption reinsurance with novation (or 100%), deporting reinsurance for administration of a block of business entered into prior to March 23, 2010 – see HHS F eg. 158 r. o (a)(3)) is treated as direct business for purposes of this supplement (included as direct business for the anguage reinsurer and excluded from direct business for the ceding insurer). Otherwise, the reinsurance data required in this supplement is only for use if an insurer writes direct major medical business and also assumes and/or reconnected business.

If an insurer has direct earned premiums to include in Columns 1 through 9 or 12 of Part 1, but also has some business in run-off (major medical claims incurred for 2019), lies year and prior, with zero major medical earned premiums or no coverage in place), the run-off claims and expenses results should be reported in Part 1, Columns 1 through 9 or 12. (If an insurer files the supplement and das a state in which the only Columns 1 through 9 or 12 business is run-off business as defined above, the insurer can report the run-off business for that state as if it was other health business; i.e., because the MLR is meaningless to that state, report zero for Columns 1 through 9 or 12 and include the run-off business along with any other health insure ice reported in the Other Health Business columns of Parts 1 and 2.)

The allocation of premium and claims between jurisdictions should be based upon situs of the contract. For purpose of this exhibit, situs of the contract is defined as "the jurisdiction in which the contract is issued or delivered as stated in the contract." For individual but, has sold through an association, the allocation shall be based on the issue state of the certificate of coverage. When the association is made up of employers, it should be reported as large group or small group depending on the size of each employer. For imployer business issued through a group trust, the allocation shall be based on the location of each employer. It is employer business issued through a multiple employer welfare association the allocation should be based on the location of each employer.

Similarly, business written by an affiliated legal entity as part of a package provided as an option to the group employer (e.g., out of network coverage written by an affiliated entity and in-network coverage written via this legal entity) should not be included in this exhibit.

This supplement provides additional instructions that are unique to the Separate Accounts Blank as well as some that 'iffer from those for the Life and Accident and Health Blank. Where there is a conflict with the Life Blank's instruction, use ness instructions. The reporting date must be plainly written or stamped at the top of all pages, exhibits and schedules (and implicate schedules) and also upon all inserted schedules and loose sheets.

Reinsurance of separate accounts business is subject to the same Trans for a Risk requirements for reinsurance accounting treatment as general account business. All reinsurance transactions in dving operate accounts business, if any, must be reported as reinsurance transactions in the general account annual statement, including reinsurance premiums, deposits, benefits, withdrawals, Schedule S (for separate accounts modified concurrance reserves), Schedule T and where applicable, the Notes to Financial Statements and Schedule Y, Part 2.

If the assuming company does not receive funds to be invested, such as with modified coinsurance or coinsurance with funds withheld, the assuming company must account for such reas grance in its general account statement. If the assuming company receives funds to be invested in support of the rein, used variable benefit reserves, the assuming company must use its separate accounts statement for such reinsurance assumed.

The separate accounts statement reports only the operations of the separate accounts themselves. It assumes that the administration of the contracts is reflected in the general account statement – hence, administrative expense does not appear in the Separate Accounts Statement, premiums and considerations are not of loading, and the expenses and taxes are those associated with the separate account into some 2 operations.

A separate distinct filing should to made for separate account products that are insulated from the general creditors of the general account and for separate account products that are not insulated (i.e., an insurance company with both insulated and non-insulated products in the separate account would submit two complete and different filings). Seed money and unsettled fees and expenses are allowed to be reported with the corresponding product (insulated or non-insulated).

When completing the i sulate blank, a reporting entity should only include those assets that are legally insulated by state law or statute. It cally insulated assets shall be equal to the reserves and supporting contract liabilities of the separate account. Such assets proved regal protection to the separate account contract holder from the general account liabilities. All other assets within the reparate account that are not legally insulated by state law or statute shall be included in the non-insulated lank.

Receipts other than income from the time are handled as a transfer from the general account. Similarly, amounts providing for the payment of benefits including surrender benefits and various other payments, appear as transfers from the separate account to the general account. Then eventually paid, these items are reported in the general account statement. The assets and liabilities are strongly those which arise from the operations of the separate accounts themselves, i.e., policy and contract reserves and items reported to the making of investments, including investment expenses and taxes due or accrued. Unpaid transfers due the general account, such as surplus, contractual benefits, or contractual charges, would also appear on the liability page.

The format of the annual statement has been designed to facilitate data capture. Therefore, do not change the captions for pre-printed in 70s, mices, or columns and do not insert write-ins between pre-printed items, lines, or columns (however, these requirements do not apply to the signature lines on the Jurat Page). FOR _______. These write-in lines should be reported in descending order. The statement provides a limited number of lines for write-ins in each applicable section. These pre-printed write-in detail schedules should not be modified.

If there is not sufficient room in a write-in detail schedule to accommodate all write-ins to be reported therein, companies shall report the write-in detail overflow on pages sequentially numbered beginning with Page 21, followed by 21.1, 21.2, etc. In such instances, companies shall carry the summary of write-in overflow lines from this page to the prescribed line in the original write-in detail section.

NOTE: Although the NAIC Model veriance Contract Law generally requires reserves for guaranteed benefits to be held in the general account, there may be circumstances where the liability for guaranteed benefits offered with variable progents is held in a separate account. For example, an actuarial guideline is currently being developed that will interpret the application of the NAIC Model Standard Valuation Law to variable annuities with guaranteed living benefits. It has not yet been determined whether the guideline will specify that reserves for a seliving benefits be held in the general account (as is required for minimum guaranteed death benefits according to Actuarial Guideline XXXIV) or in a separate account. All such reserves for guaranteed living benefits that are held in a separate account should be reported in Lines 1 thru 4, even if minimal.

INTEREST MAINTENANCE RESERVE

Interest Maintenance Reserve (IMR) requirements for investments reported in the Separate Accounts Statement are applied on an account by account basis. If an IMR is required for a separate account, all of the investments in that separate account are subject to the requirement. If an IMR is not required for a separate account, none of the investments in that separate account are subject to the requirement.

An IMR is required for separate accounts valued at book but is not required for separate accounts valued at market. For example, separate accounts for traditional variable annuities, or variable life insurance do not require an IMR because assets and liabilities are valued at market.

If an IMR is required for investments in the Separate Accounts Statement, it is kept separate from the Separate Account IMR and accounted for in the Separate Accounts Statement.

The instructions for completion of the IMR for the Separate Accounts Statement are interported in the instructions for completion of the IMR of the General Account Statement. Refer to those instructions for suiding a

ASSET VALUATION RESERVE

Asset Valuation Reserve (AVR) requirements for investments reported in the Separate Accounts Statement are applied on an account by account basis. If an AVR is required for a separate account, all of the investments in that separate account are subject to the requirement. If an AVR is not required for a separate account, none of the investments in that separate account is subject to the requirement (except to the extent that such investments represent the company's capital and surplus interest in those investments).

Whether or not an AVR is required for separate account assets depends primarily on whether the reporting entity or policyholder/contract holder suffers the loss in the event of asset default or market value loss. An important exception to this is when specific state regulation provides an alternative to the AVR.

An AVR is required for separate account investments unless:

- The asset default or market value risk is essentially borne directly by the policyhol lers, or
- The regulatory authority for such separate accounts already explicitly progress for stablishment of a reserve for asset default risk where such reserves are essentially equivalent to the AVR.

For example, assets supporting traditional variable annuities and variable life insura, we do not require an AVR because the policyholders/contract holders bear the risk of change in the value of assets. Hence, AVR is required for that portion representing the company's equity interest in the investments of such a separate account, (seed money interest, for example). Assets supporting typical modified guaranteed contracts or market value adjusted door racts do require an AVR because the company is responsible for credit related asset loss. Another category of some acts, equiring an AVR is contracts with book value guarantees similar to contracts generally found in the general account.

An example of the exception referred to in (2) above are contracts we market value separate accounts funding guaranteed benefits where state regulation provides alternatives to the AVR

The following criteria are presented to assist in determining when a AVR or an IMR are required for investments in the Separate Accounts Statement:

				It Fes,
			Does Co. Suffer	A y Other
	Assets	Liabilities	Asset Loss?	rovision?	AVR*	IMR	Example Product
	Market	Market	No		No	No	Variable Annuity
	Market	Market*	Ye	No	Yes	No	Modified Gtd. Annuity
	Market	Market	Yes	Yes	No	No	MV S/A funding Gtd. Benefits
	Book	Bo.	No		No	No
	Book	z ook	Yes	No	Yes	Yes	GIC in S/A
1	ь ok	Book	Yes	Yes	No	Yes

- However, an AVR is required for that portion representing the company's equity interest in the investments of such a separate account.
-  But not less than adjusted cash surrender value.
- You must establish an AVR reserve unless there is a statutory requirement for the equivalent of an AVR reserve for such products.

If an AVR is required for investments in the Separate Accounts Statement, it is combined with the General Account AVR and accounted for in the General Account Statement. Worksheets supporting the separate accounts portion of the reserve are included in the Separate Accounts Statement.

When the AVR Default Component covers assets valued at market, use one of the following two methods (applied consistently by separate account) to determine when a gain or loss (net of capital gains tax) is credited or charged to the AVR:

- A gain or (loss) is recorded as for the general account rules, i.e., upon sale of an asset which has changed more than one designation category or upon asset default. Once an asset is in default, all subsequent market value changes are reflected in the AVR, or
- 2. A similar procedure to Method 1 above is followed but, additionally, a gain or (loss) is recorded, whenever an asset held changes by more than one designation category. As there might be more than one such vene for a particular asset, e.g., a two designation downgrade followed by subsequent sale of the asset, the a nount harged the AVR is not of any prior amounts charged for that asset.

When an AVR is required for the company's equity or capital and surplus interest in the investments of a particular separate account that does not otherwise require an AVR, the AVR requirement is based on the company's equity interest as of the statement date, expressed as a percent of total assets of the particular separate account. On eithe equity interest percentage has been determined, it is applied to the realized and unrealized capital gains and it was a fixed investments of that particular separate account to determine the amounts to be included in the separate accounts as a used for development of the current AVR. If the company's equity interest in all such separate accounts is less than 10th of 1% of the company's total admitted assets, the equity interest in the investments of such separate accounts is given it from AVR requirements.

The instructions for completion of the AVR for the Separate Accounts a stement are incorporated in the instructions for completion of the AVR of the General Account Statement. Refer to the a instructions for guidance.

APPENDIX

INSTRUCTIONS FOR USE OF BARCODES

It is the responsibility of the company to prepare and utilize barcodes correctly.

The upper right-hand corner of the jurat page, and other pages and forms as identified on the Document Identifier Codes listing, will be the location of a 17-digit barcode symbol. The barcode standard to be utilized is the 3 of 9 (or 39) methodology. The barcode should be printed using at least a 24-point font. In addition to the barcode symbols, the name of the reporting entity, the year, and the document code should be printed on the barcode label. When the barcode is printed as part of the page rather than an affixed label, the reporting entity's name need not be printed above the bar or

The barcode consists of the entity identifier (5 digits), the year (YYYY-4 digits), the document identifier (5 digits), the state code (2 digits), if state specific page, the data indicator (1 digit) and a filing type identifier (1 digit).

This 17th digit should utilize the following codes:

- 0 to represent the annual filings
- 1 to represent the March quarterly filing
- 2 to represent the June quarterly filing
- 3 to represent the September quarterly filing
- 4 to represent the Health Maintenance Organization's fo. In quarter filing
- 5 to represent amended annual filings
- 6 to represent amended March quarterly filing
- 7 to represent amended June quarterly filing
- 8 to represent amended September qualerly filing

For filings of a reporting entity, the entity idea ifier is the NAIC company code number.

The year is represented as the last four argits of the filing year. For the 2019 annual statement due March 1, 2020, the year would be 2019.

The document identifier represents west page, schedule, exhibit, etc., is being filed. The respective identifiers for those documents requiring a bare do are included on the document identifier listing.

The state code represents if the outment identifier can be filed for each individual state (e.g., the state business pages). The two-digit code would be the same as used on Schedule T. If it is not a state-specific form, the state code is 00. The state code Other is 58, and to coo for G and Total is 59. If the reporting entity has nothing to report on any state-specific supplemental schedule or exhibit, the bareode included in the Supplemental Exhibits and Schedules Interrogatories should contain a state code of 59:

The data indicator represents if the document contains data. For filings containing data place a one (1) in this field. If the document is a NONE, place a zero (0) in this field.

The filing type identifier is used to indicate the filing of NAIC filing components or state mandated (state specific) filing requirements other than those required by the NAIC. For NAIC filing requirements, the type code is 0. For state filing requirements, the type code is 1.

If forms which are required to have a separate barcode as identified on the Document Identifier Codes listing are bound in the statement, these forms MUST have the barcode affixed to them. If a reporting entity submits with the March 1 filing a page requiring a barcode and that page has not been completed due to a later filing date, the barcode should not be affixed for the March filing. If the filing includes a page listing none schedules (and the state in which you are filing permits such a filing) and any of these schedules fall within that listing that requires a barcode, the barcode must be placed to the right of the name of the page, exhibit or schedule. On those forms which are completed on a by-state basis and are marked none because the company does not write that type of business or that particular state page is none, place the appropriate identifier with the data indicator of zero (0). State pages which have values reported must use the appropriate state barcode identifier from Schedule T. If any state requires the filing of a none "by-state basis" page, the name of the appropriate state must still be printed on the hard copy after "For the State of _______."

A listing of the Document Identifier Codes can be found at www.naic.org/cmte_e_app_blanks.htm.

The reporting entity is required to affix the appropriate barcode next to the respective Supplemental In progratory using the document identifier code provided. Note that it is only Supplemental Interrogatories to which the provided entity has responded "NO" that it does not have to file a particular exhibit or form, and for which the provided get or form is marked none that the appropriate barcode be affixed. For supplements that are state specific, the paly in the process abarcode should be affixed is when that type of business is not written at all in any state.
